

RENOKAR - CNC s. r. o., active in the automotive industry for almost 20 years, invests in modern production technologies and the development of robotic lines for its own production is looking for an employee for the following job:

SHIFT SUPERVISOR

The job description is shift management in cooperation with the direct superior:

- responsibility for compliance with the production plan and product quality
- adjustment and knowledge of technologies in production
- supervision of OHS and fire protection
- compliance with the company regulations
- organising employees on shift
- 3-shift operation / continuous operation
- 8h / 12h working hours

Location:

- Stráž pod Ralskem, 471 27

Requirements:

- secondary technical education with a secondary school-leaving exam
- experience in the automotive industry is an advantage
- technical documentation knowledge
- independence, reliability, responsibility
- good communication, organisational and planning skills
- basic IT skills

We offer:

- the stability of a strong Czech company
- possibility of professional and specialised growth
- starting salary: CZK 35,000; after induction training CZK 40,000–50,000
- bonuses according to the remuneration system
- 5 weeks of annual leave
- meal allowance

